The Altar Flowers are given today by Danielle Bane to the Glory of God and in thanksgiving for her daughter, Emogene Bane.

The 19th Sunday after Pentecost
October 19, 2025
10:30 a.m.

We are delighted that you have chosen to worship with us today. This bulletin has been created from the prayers found in The Book of Common Prayer, and it contains most of the spoken parts of our worship. The Hymnal in your pew rack contains the hymns we will sing.

All are welcomed to our altar at Communion. Baptized Christians (in any Church) are invited to receive the Sacrament of bread and wine. If you would prefer instead to receive a blessing from the priest, you may indicate your desire for a blessing by crossing your arms over your chest.

We are glad you're here, and grateful for your contribution to our common prayer today!

The people say, Praise to you, Lord Christ.

The Sermon

We believe in one God,
the Father, the Almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ,
the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father, God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made,
of one Being with the Father;
through him all things were made.

For us and for our salvation
he came down from heaven,
by the power of the Holy Spirit,
he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary and was made man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;
he suffered death and was buried.

On the third day he rose again
in accordance with the Scriptures;
he ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.

He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead,
and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son.

With the Father and the Son, he is worshiped and glorified.

He has spoken through the Prophets.

We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.

We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.

We look for the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world to come. Amen.

The Prayers of the People*The people may kneel for the prayers.*Form IV, The Book of Common Prayer, p. 388

Priest Kneeling together, let us pray for the Church and for the world, offering the names associated with our thanksgivings and intercessions, and then joining the congregational refrain by responding, “Hear our prayer.”

The Intercessor leads our prayers, offering silence for the congregation and clergy to add any names—silently or aloud—and then bidding the congregation’s response to each petition by saying,

“Lord, in your mercy.”

People Hear our prayer.

The Celebrant then prays a concluding collect.

The Confession and Absolution

The people remain kneeling

Priest and People

Most merciful God, we confess that we have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed,
by what we have done, and by what we have left undone.
We have not loved you with our whole heart;
we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves.
We are truly sorry and we humbly repent.
For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us;
that we may delight in your will, and walk in your ways,
to the glory of your Name. Amen.

Celebrant

Almighty God have mercy on you, forgive you all your sins through our Lord Jesus Christ, strengthen you in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep you in eternal life. Amen.
